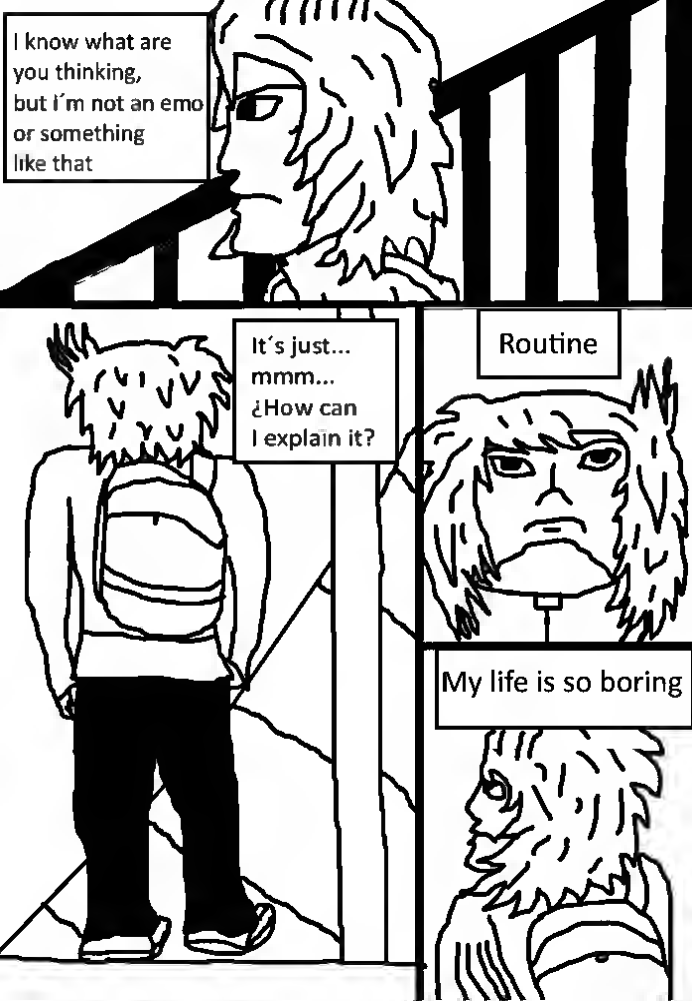
Today...
Is the first day of class after vacations I'm going to miss too much, stay in my room, sitting in my bed doing nothing. But anyway...
I just want to have something to do in my life...



I know what are you thinking, but I´m not an emo or something like that
It´s just... mmm... ¿How can I explain it?
Routine
My life is so boring

Everyday, I wake up and is always the same, I go to school, study, I return to my house, do homework, sleep and the next day is exactly the same, there is no emotion in my life.
I've tried to add some excitement to my life, I joined a gym, started to do sports like swimming, football, basketball, even try to dance...
But none of that changes my life, I have emptiness in my life and nothing can fill it.
Hey Rodrigo!!! Hold on!!!

If someone has a worse life than mine... it must be Luis
Sup yo!
Luis is him
Oh I forgot to tell what is my name, I´m Rodrigo Tong
Hey Luis! Is your cat treating you ok?
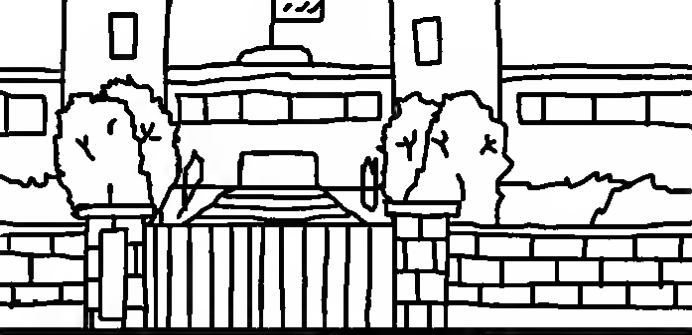
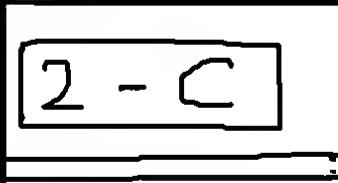
Come on today is the first day, I want to choose a chair beside the window

I said, that he has a worse life than mine ¿Why?
Well, you only need to look at him...
I mean, just look him, often people see him, and quickly they are bullying him, without reason
That´s why I'm his only friend and also he is my only friend
What did you do in the summer?
I tried to count all the stars in the sky
Oh, and you did it?
Of course I did it
And how many stars are in the sky?
I actually tried





Second year here,
my first year like everything,
sucked. .
I wonder if something is going to happen this year

Hey Luis, remember to sit close to the smart ones. so you´ll be able to copy them in the tests.
Got it! Dont't forget the trick to lose time in class
I know it
Oh damn everyone is here already. Let me show you everyone in the class.

And they are all my classmates
Really nothing matters about them, so we're not going to enter into details with them.
Shit, looks like all the chairs beside the window had been taken.
These two guys .their names are Christopher(left) and Jayson(right)
They really piss me off, they have been a pain in the ass, since I met them, and now they take away my favorite chair

Damn, only this shitty chairs are avaible, in the middle and in the front, no one would choose this crap.
I hate this so much
My chair is the eighteen. I won't forget it.
All I want, is that something happen in my life...
